The Huntington Beach High School Newspaper, Oiler Ink, invites you to support your local school and get exposure in the newspaper at the same time. Whether you wish to advertise your business or recognize a student employee, your company image will be seen by potential employees and customers alike.

You can show your support for Huntington Beach High School by purchasing an ad; in return, our students and parents will be encouraged to show support for your business. Perhaps you would like to include a coupon or flyer insert which can then be redeemed for a service or product. Remember, your ad, like all donations, is tax deductible. Our newspaper will be viewed by students, parents, relatives, and other community members alike, and your ad will also be posted on the Oiler Ink website creating dual exposure. Don't miss out on an opportunity to extend an invitation to the Huntington Beach High School family!
